All About Singing
and Dogs, Gambling, Liquor, and Taxes

Quot
very great house is full of servants

Long after this writer finished at the University of Missouri there were reports from the campus of love's coed with an amazing contralto voice. She appeared professionally at a St. Louis theater — and went on to fame and fortune, and a heartbreaking personal trama.

After name was Jane Froman, and her story is on the screen at the theater this week-end. Her role is played by Susan Hayward, but it's anew who actually sings. They call the film "With a Song in My Heart" — and it's the best singing you'll hear in 1952.

Miss Froman's fortune when a shipper crash at Lisbon, Portugal, threatened her career, captured the heart of the world. And when she fell in love with Third Pilot Burn, he saved her from drowning when the big plane hit the water, the world and not only a heart interest at a prize story.

What you see on the Saenger screen is real and true. Not every act-story is interesting or believable after Hollywood gets through with it — but this one is. For there's the magic of Jane Froman's songs, and the heart-throb of Susan Hayward's speaking voice — this most competent actress depicts the triumph, disaster, despair, and final deliverance of another woman's happiness.

Jess Davis, whose Boxer dog locker came home from the Tex-arkana show with a blue ribbon, and made the following item clipped off the United Press radio wire by his brother-in-law, James Clay-son, who runs the radio station in Quincy:

"Chesica, Mass. — A big Boxer dog hung around a meat market in Chesica, Mass., this week for three days.

"Apparently he was casing the place. He leaped behind the meat market and fled with a choice light-pound ham."

"If the implication is that this animal like my own Boxer, who has some illustrious ancestors but no liberty of his own, they got my dog wrong. He wouldn't have taken that bait. The dog's have made off with the front door."

My friend Edgar G. Harris, who lives at the West Point (Miss.) Times leader, observes:

"Federal Judge George A. Welch of Philadelphia has ruled that it is unconstitutional to require folks to pay $50 a year for the privilege of gambling. He characterizes it as an illegal tax on an illegal occupation, and we're inclined to believe he is right. Here in Mississippi, you know, we collect a tax from bootleggers, and someday some wise law is going to tell us that we have no right to do so."

Which is sound editorial opinion, good law and morality.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue is justly outraged over being expected to do local police work.

And the people of Mississippi have long cringed over the paradox of outlawing liquor sales and then denying the law to be broken for the price of a tax.

But the people of Arkansas aren't bit better. In our state the million-dollar-shooters vote a county clerk — but still they grab every dime available for their county schools from the tax collected on liquor sold in other counties.

Local option elections should specify that when liquor sales are prohibited the county also loses its percentage of state aid derived from the liquor tax. There's nothing so unsettling to public hypocricy as coupling a moral question to money.

Cotton Gives Farm Income Good '52 Start

Washington, May 12 (AP) — Thanks to last year's cotton crop, Arkansas farm income is off to a good start this year.

A new Department of Agriculture report shows that for the first two months of this year Arkansas farmers received a total of $73,256,000 from marketings of crops and livestock, compared with $59,992,000 for the like period in 1951.

And last year Arkansas farmers wound up with a respectable total of $804,519,000 for the year, some 10 per cent higher than for 1950.

The report shows that farm receipts from cotton marketings over the entire cotton belt were considerably higher for January-February as compared with the 2-month period last year.

Whether Arkansas can maintain its good start depends on production and prices for this year's crops and livestock.

The department said it expects farmers' net income for 1952—for the nation as a whole — to be about the same or slightly below last year's.

For the first two months of the year Arkansas farmers realized $28,636,000 from sale of livestock and $44,620,000 from crops, compared with $26,321,000 and $33,071,000, respectively in 1951.

Figures for March and April are not yet available by states.

Reds Accused of Using Talks in Propaganda

Munsan, Korea, May 12 (AP) — The United Nations Command today sharply accused the Communists of using the Korean armistice talks for a propaganda sounding board.

A UNC communique said the Reds fired "their most vicious propaganda attack of the 10-month-old armistice negotiations" in a 34-minute "tirade, obviously prepared in advance" and "filled with invective, distortions and palpable lies."

Another plenary session was scheduled for 11 a. m. Tuesday (10 p. m. EST, Monday). But Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, senior U. N. delegate, told the Reds the U. N. Command "formally disassociates itself from the propaganda purposes for which you are utilizing these meetings."

North Korean Gen. Nam Il charged in today's session that the Allies mistreated Red prisoners of war.

Never before had newsmen covering the negotiations in Panmunjom seen the usually mild-mannered Adm. Joy so angry. After the 52-minute session, he said:

"We were subjected today to one of the most vicious propaganda blasts we have ever had. The Communists told us in effect that unless we intend to disrupt the meetings they would insist on meeting every day and use these meetings overtly for propaganda although they did not use those words."

Nam Il again flatly rejected Joy's proposal for an indefinite recess until the Communists have something concrete to offer.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckolls, U. N. Command spokesman, said the Reds have instructions to insist on continuing the talks and "to utilize them entirely for a propaganda sounding board. This appears to be a course of action."

The talks are tightly deadlocked over the exchange of prisoners. The United Nations Command has demanded voluntary repatriation of POWs. The Reds have insisted that all held by the UNC be returned, by force if necessary.

East German Reds Set for New Cold War

Bonn, Germany, May 12 (AP) — West Germany's impending peace contract brought a bloody week end battle to industrial Essen and reports today that East Germany's Communist rulers are readying a drastic step-up in the cold war against the west and tighter Russian-East German ties.

One young Communist was killed in the Essen riot, in which police gunfire broke up a clash between anti-Reds and 30,000 Communist youth demonstrating against plans to rearm West Germany for Western defense. Scores of demonstrators were injured and several were arrested.

High School Annual Is Off the Press

"The Bobcat for 1952," high school annual is just off the press and is a beautiful leather bound book of more than 160 pages. The book carries pictures of all the high school students along with snapshots and recognition to special award winners. The back is covered in red leather which carries the emblem of a Bobcat. This year's book was dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Erma Dean.

Arrest Follows 'Knife' Fight

City officers yesterday arrested Nevada Williams, Negro, following an argument in which Betty Joe Hacker, Negro, was slashed on the hand with a knife. The injury was not considered too serious.

Would Curb Release of Jet Planes

Washington, May 12 (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) today proposed shipments of jet planes to American Allies be limited to 10 per cent of the nation's production until the U. S. Air Force is fully equipped with jets.

He offered this as an amendment to the $8,900,000,000 foreign aid bill now before the Senate Armed Services committee.

The committee put off acting on the Knowland proposal until tomorrow. Acting Chairman Byrd (D-Va.) said the group wanted to hear testimony from some of the nation's top military air experts before voting.

State Court Reverses Verdict

Little Rock, May 12 (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today refused to order reopening of a Garland County Circuit Court case which had resulted in a verdict of $6,000 for personal injuries.

The judgement was returned in favor of J. H. Harvey against Evelyn Anderson Sellers.

Later Mrs. Sellers sought a new trial, contending there was newly discovered evidence.

The lower court refused another trial.

Harvey was injured Aug. 21, 1950, when he was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Sellers. The accident occurred at a filling station, where Harvey was employed, where Harvey was injured and several were arrested.

Local Scouts to Hold Camporee at Narrows Lake

With the camping season just around the corner, the Finney Woods District of the Caddo Area Council, B. S. A. has planned a week-end camping program for May 18 and 17, to be held at Narrows Lake, near Murfreesboro.

The camping of the District Scouts will be highly competitive. Each troop will be judged on its camping ability and scouting skills including cooking, sanitation, compass skills, physical fitness and many others.

The Laurel Creek Fishing Camp, reserved by Lake authorities for future development, has been chosen for the camp-site and offers excellent surroundings for scouting. A beach that gradually slopes away will offer the best swimming to be had anywhere.

The camporee program ends after the camp-fire program Saturday night. However a pastor will come out Sunday morning to present a non-denominational service for those troops who wish to stay over for Sunday.

Eligible to enter from Hope are: Troop 62 of the First Methodist Church, Troop 90 sponsored by the Hope VFW Post, Troop 82 from Watercreek Methodist Church, Post 58 sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church and Sqdn. 62 sponsored by the Hope Kiwanis club, Troop 65 from Fulton may be in the competition also.

The camping-site may be reached by driving 9 1/2 miles from Murfreesboro on highway 70 northeast then 4 1/2 miles to the site. Visitors interested in Scouting are welcome to come out to this site for a picnic.

Concessions Made to Red Prisoners

Seoul, Korea, May 12 (AP) — Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd said tonight Communist prisoners of war who held him hostage on Koje Island four days last week threatened to kill him if the U. S. Eighth Army tried to rescue him by force.

Gen. Mark W. Clark, new supreme U. N. commander, said in Tokyo the Red POWs were granted some minor concessions. He termed their original demands for Dodd's release "unadulterated blackmail." He seemed to hint they would not be honored.

Clark said the reply to the prisoners "was made under duress at a time when the life of General Dodd was at stake."

"Any commitments made... as a result of such demands should be interpreted accordingly."

Dodd read a statement to correspondents saying he was convinced the United Nations Command had threats to use force "had a decided effect" in obtaining his release Saturday night.

The correspondents were not permitted to question the general. It was the first time they had been allowed to see him.

Dodd said he was well treated by the Reds while a captive in Compound 76 on the island — the U. N. No. 1 camp for tough prisoners. He seemed healthy.

The general said "demands made by the prisoners in exchange for his release were 'inconsequential' and that concessions granted by the camp authorities were 'of minor importance.'"

Newsmen were permitted to visit Koje today for the first time since the Wednesday seizure of Dodd, then prisoner camp commander. Continued on Page Two

Chinese Rail Lines Blasted by UN Planes

Seoul, Korea, May 12 (AP) — United Nations warplanes today blasted the North Korean rail network with another of their new saturation bombings designed to make track repairs as tough as possible for the Reds.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said fighter-bombers made 28 cuts in a short stretch on the vital Kanggye-Sinuiju line near Huichon in the northwest. Nine U. S. B-29s hit the Huichon rail bridge yesterday with 90 tons of bombs. Fighter-bombers cratered rails in more than 80 places on a small section south of Sinuiju at the same time.

The stretches of track are on main rail routes from Manchuria to the North Korean capital, Pyongyang.

In the past two weeks, U. N. warplanes have been concentrating bombdrops in short sections on the main lines. This makes repair work more difficult for the Red track crews, who have been able overnight to repair cuts by only a few bomb.

U. S. Marine consairs and paratroopers attacked Communist front lines Monday. The Air Force said they wrecked 16 bunkers and destroyed eight gun positions with explosives.

A U. S. Eighth Army briefing officer said a "rough little fight" broke out Sunday when 15 grenade-throwing Reds truck at a United Nations position northeast of Kumhwa on the Central Front, and six on the Eastern Front in the Mundung Valley.

Hearing Starts on Steel Seizure; Union Would Tighten Oil Walkout

Denver, May 12 (AP) — Union leaders called today for a tightening of a nation-wide strike of about 90,000 oil workers as union and industry officials headed for a Washington conference tomorrow.

The conference was called by the Wage Stabilization Board to talk over ways and means of ending the walkout, now in its 13th day. The coalition of striking unions turned down a request by the board to send its men back to work, pending the conference.

CIO Oil Workers International Union officials of eight Midwest states met at Toledo, Ohio, yesterday and agreed to "tighten up picketing at all points where it may be legal to do so."

O. A. Knight, president of the CIO's Oil Workers International Union, said in Washington the walkout striking for higher wages with new contracts.

Knight said he still hadn't obtained details of the Standard of California agreement but it seemed "to be getting close to our figure."

Knight said there was a number of small agreements which could be the basis for settlements over the nation. He said the Consumers Co-operative Refinery Association, Coffeyville, Kan., had settled for an 18 1/2-cent hourly basic wage boost, plus new shift differentials of six and 12 cents.

He said, too, that a Laurel, Mont., refinery reached terms on an 18-cent basic wage boost plus the 6 and 12-cent shift differentials, and the Rock Island Refinery, Moline, Ill., settled on the same basis.

Asked what he expected to be accomplished at the WSB meeting tomorrow, Knight said:

"I only know that we were asked to attend a meeting to report on the situation. I have no idea what may happen beyond that."

Meanwhile, it was reported that President Truman may invoke the national emergency provision of the Taft-Hartley Law, with its provisions for an 80-day strike-ban court injunction, unless the strike is settled in the next few days.

The WSB is considering several minor agreements reached in the industry. Its approval or partial approval of already-negotiated contracts could point the way for terms in the remainder of the strike-bound industry. However, the public, industry and labor men- Continued on Page Two

Denver, May 12 (AP) — Union leaders called today for a tightening of a nation-wide strike of about 90,000 oil workers as union and industry officials headed for a Washington conference tomorrow.

The conference was called by the Wage Stabilization Board to talk over ways and means of ending the walkout, now in its 13th day. The coalition of striking unions turned down a request by the board to send its men back to work, pending the conference.

CIO Oil Workers International Union officials of eight Midwest states met at Toledo, Ohio, yesterday and agreed to "tighten up picketing at all points where it may be legal to do so."

O. A. Knight, president of the CIO's Oil Workers International Union, said in Washington the walkout striking for higher wages with new contracts.

Knight said he still hadn't obtained details of the Standard of California agreement but it seemed "to be getting close

Many Favor Easing House Down Payments

Washington, May 12 (AP) - Sentimental circles for an easing of down payment circles for an easing of down payment requirements on houses in the medium and upper price brackets, which have not been selling too well.

Several members of the Federal Reserve Board, which administers Regulation X over housing credit, favor the move, it was learned today.

The board is surveying the prospects and will talk things over with Raymond Foley, housing and home finance administrator, who would have to enact the move. The housing agency was reported cooler toward the proposal than some reserve board members.

A final decision is expected in the next few weeks.

Regulation X now requires a sliding scale of down payments: starting at $1,550 for a conventional loan on an $8,000 house and zooming to 50 per cent down on all houses above $24,500.

Lending standards by the government for veterans carry smaller down payments, from $750 for an $8,000 house to 45 per cent for houses above $24,500.

Some board members think the present scale has some lumps in it, with down payments increasing out of proportion to the price of homes of $15,000 and above.

The new members say one-third down would be an adequate requirement for the highest-priced homes. Starting downward from this point, they would install a lower and more even scale of down payment requirements until they approached the present scale at about the $15,000 class.

Under the present regulation, for an $18,000 house, on conventional loans the down payment jumps to $6,700 and on G. I. loans to $5,300. Thus a house costing $10,600 more than the $8,000 class carries more than half of the difference—more than $5,600—included in the down payment.

The housing market as a whole is booming, but surveys by the reserve board show that sales of houses costing $15,000 and more are relatively slow.

There were almost 100,000 housing starts in March, the second highest mark on record. Original estimates of 800,000 starts this year are being revised upward to more than one million.

Because of this tendency toward a boom situation, the board will examine the prospects carefully and any changes probably will be considered moderate by the board.

Spokesmen for lenders and builders, however, say the proposed changes would be a big help to them in selling medium and high-priced homes.

Young FDR May Attend Bar Meeting

By The Associated Press

Arkansas politicians were shunted into the background over the weekend by national political plans by polls in the state.

Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. (D-Ny.) said he will try to attend the Arkansas Bar Association meeting at Hot Springs this week; Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was a 2-to-1 plurality in an Arkansas presidential candidate, praised two federal power projects at a small city postmasters convention in Little Rock.

Roosevelt has been asked by Democratic presidential candidate W. Averell Harriman to represent him at the Bar Association's convention. An association committee is attempting to arrange for appearance of presidential candidates or their representatives at the convention. Sen. John C. Stennis (D-Miss.) said Saturday he would be unable to attend as a representative of Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia. Both Gen. Eisenhower and Sen. Taft are expected to be represented at the meeting, which opens Friday.

Sen. Taft favored by eight of Arkansas' 11 delegates to the National Republican Convention was third in a presidential straw vote conducted by the Arkansas Pharmaceutical Association. He received only 3,345 of the 38,881 votes cast. Eisenhower placed first with 13,944 votes. Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) was second with 6,009. Kefauver was the only Democrat placing in the top four positions. Fourth polling 3,762 votes, was native son Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Acting Defense Mobilizer Steelman, a native of Arkansas, told the postmasters convention at Little Rock that the national defense program was not the prime factor behind the South's new prosperity.

"Without the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Southwestern Power Administration, the spectacular development of the South has been impossible," said Steelman. He called critics of TVA "shortsighted cynics."

Wife of Atomic Scientist Abducted

Chicago May 12 (AP) - The attractive wife of an atom scientist, an armed robber forced her to leave her husband's bed yesterday, took her on an auto ride and made her disrobe.

The woman, Mrs. Joan Untermyer, 36, told police the kidnaper, a Negro, did not otherwise harm her. His loot was $7,035 in cash and jewels.

Her husband, Samuel, 37, is an atomic physicist at the Argonne National Laboratory.

Police said the robber who awoke the couple in the second floor bedroom of their South Side home did not disturb their four sleeping children.

FIRE MEET SET

Forrest City, May 12 (AP) - Arkansas firemen will meet here on Nov. 4, 5 and 6. Fire Chief Louis Grobner announced today.

More than 400 firemen are expected to attend.

The first telegraph line across the United States from coast to coast was completed in 1861.

"backfire."

DeLong, veteran of 13 years in the Navy, had just completed a drill in the Navy's firefighting school at the Naval Operating Base here with seven other sailors. They had re-entered the building to extinguish the smudge pots and were trapped by a billowing blaze.

Gen. Ridgway Leaves for New Command

Tokyo May 12 (AP) - Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who blocked the Communists in Korea and engineered the end of the Allied occupation of Japan, left today on his way to Europe to succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces.

It was only a year, a month and a day ago that Ridgway, soldier, diplomat and Pentagon trouble shooter, took over from Gen. Douglas MacArthur as supreme commander of the Allied powers in Japan.

As he left he turned over his United Nations and Far Eastern commands to Gen. Mark Clark. Clark then, said Mrs. Ridgway goodbye and she walked up the plane stairs with her husband.

The glitzy constellation left at 3:09 p.m. Tokyo time for Honolulu.

At Hana Airport were diplomats and high brass. The crowd cheered when Ridgway said from the plane stairs:

"I am deeply honored by this ceremony. To see the armed forces lined up side by side seems to me not only a tribute of purpose, but also of the peoples they represent and all the free people of the world."

"I have complete and unshakable faith in this command. Both Mrs. Ridgway and I want to express our heartfelt thanks for your services and our best wishes to you always."

The Ridgways, Clark and Japanese Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida had walked shoulder to shoulder to the plane.

Ridgway ducked inside and came out quickly with his 13-year-old son Matthew Jr. on his shoulder.

Among those at the airport to bid Ridgway farewell were Lt. Gen. William H. Harrison, commander of British Commonwealth forces in Korea; New Aldin, Robert P. Briggs, commander of the U. S. Seventh Fleet; Lt. Gen. O. P. Weyland, commander of the Far East Air Forces; and Tameo Matsudaira, representing Emperor Hirohito.

AP Correspondent George McGowan estimated about 100,000 persons were scattered along the 13-mile route from Ridgway mansion to the airport.

There was little of the pomp and ceremony that marked MacArthur's departure in April last year after the veteran of Corregidor had been tried by President Truman.

Ridgway, in summer uniform, shook hands with his Japanese servants as he said:

"Goodbye, goodbye. We'll be back to see you some day."

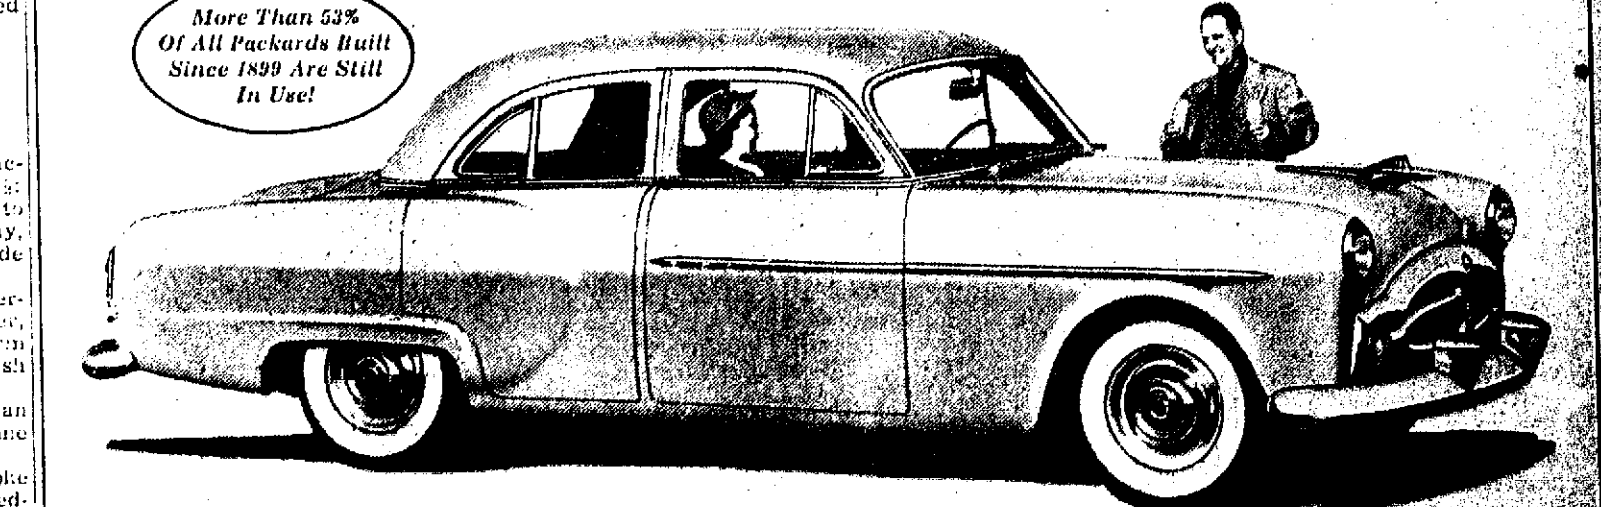

A Japanese police band and a U. S. Navy band played as the Ridgways entered the black limousine waiting to take them to the airport.

Ridgway will travel via Honolulu

Prize Ingrate

Dear Miss Dix: My wife is a fine woman who keeps a spotless house, is attractive and well groomed, and serves wonderful meals. Our children are clean, well-mannered and obedient; my clothes are always in repair and neatly arranged in drawers and closet. Still, I have one complaint. She likes to go out dancing or to a night club once in a month. She claims it keeps her young to go out now and then.

I have just spent quite a bit of money on a TV set and think after looking at that four or five hours every night she gets enough entertainment. She says she's awfully tired of TV and likes to mix with people. I'm satisfied with TV. Why can't she be?

JOHN H.

Answer: I thought, while reading your letter, that it was a Utopian ideal of womanhood; never did I expect this perfect creature to be real. And then to have you find a flaw! John, how can you be so lacking in appreciation of your patron? Just one set of these virtues would satisfy most men. Here you have every perfection in one creature and you find fault.

To begrudge a fine wife the pleasure of one night's dancing is a man's magnitude at its worst. Once a week would not be too great a reward for the blessings you have. Wake up, son! Be thankful for your blessings — and show it!

TV ISN'T EVERYTHING

TV is very nice in its place, but it cannot be expected to provide all a woman's — or man's — relaxation and entertainment.

The pleasures of human companionship, the thrill of dancing to "live" music, the satisfaction of sitting down to a meal without worrying about dishes piling up in the kitchen — these are simple forms of entertainment to which any woman is entitled. In fact, they'll do even a hard-working man some good. Nothing is so conducive to a sluggish mind as a constant out of TV. Television taken in proper doses can be entertaining, educational, stimulating, but as a steady thing it can become very boring.

Take your wife out dancing once a month; in fact, take her out twice a month, and be humbly grateful for the blessings she has brought.

and San Francisco to Washington, where he will confer with President Truman before proceeding to his NATO command.

and accept the truth gracefully.

Dear Miss Dix: I have been married three years to a fine husband who does everything in his power to please me. One thing about him I can't understand is that he wants me to buy the type of dresses he likes. Since I am the one to wear them, I think I should get what I like.

SONYA

Answer: If your husband's choices are, on the whole, acceptable, why not humor his whim and let him continue as stylist? Many men fancy themselves as fashion experts and it does no harm to foster the illusion. Some of them actually are very good at selecting clothes; if your husband is one of them, his advice may well be followed.

NOTICE

Mosquito breeding season is at hand. It has been brought to the attention of the Health Department that there are many vacant lots and fence rows that have grown up in weeds. Such places afford harbors for mosquitoes. We ask that you please take care of these situations. The City of Hope now has available a tractor mower that can be engaged for a reasonable sum. If you are unable to make other arrangements please call 7-2328.

Please check your premises for empty cans or bottles that can contain water as these afford excellent breeding places for mosquitoes, especially under houses.

Explosion of Sen. McCarty Is Considered

Washington, May 12 (AP)—A Senate rules subcommittee today in a public hearing on a resolution looking toward the expulsion of Sen. McCarty (D-Wis.) from the Senate.

The starting point of the inquiry is a Benton charge that McCarty "grossly violated" senatorial ethics in accepting $10,000 in 1948 from the now defunct Lastron corporation for an article on housing. McCarty says his acceptance of the fee was entirely proper, and that he performed a public service in writing the article and getting it published.

Sen. Gillette (D-Ia), chairman of the subcommittee, contended in a radio interview last night, however, that McCarty "sold" information coming to him as a government official to the Lastron people "for the purpose of their advertisement."

Gillette also told CBS television interviewers that McCarty's income tax returns have been under scrutiny.

McCarty promptly got out a statement, addressed to CBS, asking for its equal length of time on the television network to answer the charges. He said that the charges were "untrue and defamatory."

Mississippi Compromise Not Likely

Jackson, Miss., May 12 (AP)—Mississippi Democratic leaders said today there would be no compromise on what they called anti-Southern legislation in the national party's platform.

They also asserted there would be no compromise on any candidate willing to run on a platform containing "civil rights," fair employment practices, commission FEPC and other anti-Southern planks.

A statement on the Democrats' position was issued here by Tom D. Tibb, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and W. W. Wright, chairman of the party's campaign committee.

The campaign committee, they said, will "work in close cooperation with other Southern states that the political power now in the hands of the South may be used to either force the present leadership of the national party to adopt a platform and nominate a candidate acceptable to the south, or to give the combined electoral vote of at least seven Southern states to a non-Southern Democrat and thus throw the election into the House of Representatives."

Democrats of Mississippi will hold their state convention on June 20 and will decide then "as to conditions and candidates as they then exist," the statement continued.

"If the platform adopted at the national democratic convention contains 'civil rights,' FEPC and other anti-Southern planks, as it did in 1948, Mississippi's delegation will take no further participation in the convention. There will be no compromise on this point."

"This also means that Mississippi Democrats probably would join those of Louisiana in a plan to recess their state conventions until after the national convention and then meet again to select their presidential electors."

"Our program contemplates... that other Southern states will join with South Carolina, Louisiana and Mississippi in this plan," the statement said.

Merchants Appreciation Shot in Arm

By SAM DAWSON
New York, May 9 (AP)—Buying on time is now free of federal reserve controls—a bit of pump priming appreciated today by many hard-pressed retailers and makers of slow-selling household items and by many car dealers.

Dropping of Regulation W, which set rates for installment buying terms, opens a new consumer market. And many dealers in TV sets, refrigerators, washers and cars are expected to go after it vigorously.

Many have contended that lower down payments and smaller monthly payments was what their selling businesses needed. They hope scuttling of Regulation W will pull into the market consumers who under the curbs couldn't raise the cash required or meet the higher monthly installments.

These merchants and manufacturers, however, may run into some troubles with their bankers. Most merchants let the banks handle their credit paper. And bankers as a rule frown on any "no-down-payment" plan as a poor credit risk. The American Bankers Association is urging members to take a "cautious approach" toward any "competitive scramble" that may follow.

Bankers, however, as a whole seem to approve the Federal Reserve Board's action. They cite it as a recognition of the present business lull, and of the nation's productive capacity which puts most household items in full supply. A few still fear the threat of inflation, but most think this bit of pump priming is worth the risk.

Certainly a lot of merchants are hoping today that more consumers can and will raise the money for Alpha Gamma, May 12 (AP)—Violent winds of tornado force leveled sections of this town of 600 persons yesterday and caused heavy property damage. Some was killed.

The hotel tower flattened dozens of homes and businesses, smashed the home community water tank and wrecked all the school property. But despite the blow, only three persons were hospitalized.

Mayor Julian P. Paulk estimated property damage would approach a half-million dollars.

"It's unbelievable that a lot of people weren't killed," he declared.

Winds of gale force howled through Jacksonville, Fla., and Columbus, Ga., but damage was light.

At Jacksonville, plate glass windows and Arkansas.

Louisiana Prisoners on Hunger Strike

Angola, La., May 12 (AP)—A Louisiana prison head ignored today a hunger and work strike by 120 convicts and accusations that he attempted to kill a radio newsman who questioned prisoners.

The white convicts in the camp for first offenders at the state penitentiary went on strike five days ago protesting long working hours in the prison farm's cane fields.

James Van Sickle, radio news director for Station KWKH at Shreveport, La., sought to obtain interviews yesterday from a group of the striking convicts.

Van Sickle said when Superintendent D. D. Bazer found him talking to prisoners he drew his pistol and said, "I'm going to kill you."

The newsmen said he had been invited to the prison by Deputy Warden L. H. Mulina.

"I don't care nothing about what Van Sickle says," Bazer said. "I'm not going to admit anything. If he wants to go to court with it, that's all right."

Van Sickle said after Bazer threatened his life with the pistol, "he came at me and struck a blow."

Windows were shattered, trees uprooted and some planes damaged.

The storms followed Saturday's heavy rain and twisters and rainstorms which ended four deaths in the South and inflicted property damage in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama and Arkansas.

Two Die in Car Wrecks, Toll 17

By The Associated Press
Highway accidents near Yellville and Pocahontas killed two Arkansians Sunday, bringing the violent death toll to 17 for the week ended Sunday midnight.

Garvin Pyl, about 30, of Peart, Ark., was killed when the truck in which he was riding left Highway 14 near Yellville and crashed into a tree.

Russell Markle, about 34, also of Peart, one of the truck's two other occupants, was injured seriously.

Eighteen-year-old Bobby Joe Kirby of Lake City, Ark., was injured fatally when the pickup truck he was driving overturned on Highway 67, three miles south of Pocahontas.

State Policeman Bill Miller said Kirby was attempting to pass another vehicle when the mishap occurred.

Isaiah Carrell, 62-year-old Faulkner County farmer, died Saturday night at a Conway hospital of injuries suffered in an accident earlier in the day.

Conner H. A. McNutt said Carrell was dragged a considerable distance when a mule, hitched to a plow, lofted.

Rotarians to Meet at Spa
Hot Springs, May 12 (AP)—Rotarians from 31 clubs in Western and Southern Arkansas were expected here Monday for the annual meeting of District 201, Rotary International.

Early arrivals had a golf tournament and a buffet dinner Sunday.

Others threw them out; firecrackers blasted in the corridors; bouncers tried tooust hecklers and man-handled news photographers.

Heat Forced Out Over Weekend

By The Associated Press
Wind, rain, hail and a small tornado over the week-end helped crack a sizzling heat wave in Arkansas.

A low of 34 degrees was recorded in Fayetteville with a high of 71 at Ft. Smith and Texarkana.

The Little Rock Weather Bureau forecast fair and warmer weather. The bureau said the Sunday temperatures were nearer the normal mark for this time of year than the record-breaking 90-degree weather last week.

Other high readings included: Fayetteville, 66; Little Rock, 68; Pine Bluff, 68; Walnut Ridge, 63; Flippin, 67 and El Dorado, 70.

Fire Threatens Des Arc Businesses

Des Arc, May 12 (AP)—Fire threatened the business district of Des Arc Sunday but firemen from Carlisle, Hazen and Brinkley joined local volunteers to confine the flames to a single building.

The M. A. Johnson General Merchandise store was destroyed. Defective wiring was blamed for the fire. There was no estimate of the damage.

U. S. Farmers harvested more than 13 million acres of soy beans in 1951.

"TEXAS EASTERN ADDS DAILY TO THE WELFARE OF OUR CITY" WEEKLY EDITOR REPORTS AFTER SURVEY

Mutual Good Will and Economic Return Cited As Primary Factors in Relations of Company and Typical Community Near Pipelines

"From the time Ed Deiselberg, local manager of Public Service Company of Indiana, deposits in the First National Bank here a Texas Eastern check running $45,000 for a month's electric power, until Jake Parsons buys that big sackful of groceries at one of our fine stores, the Company and its employees are adding daily to the welfare of our city," Robert Kelley, editor of the Batesville (Indiana) Herald-Tribune, reports.

Editor Kelley says that his survey shows that two main factors affect community-company relations: (1) mutual good will, and (2) economic return.

"The good will existing between Texas Eastern and the people of Batesville is the kind that makes good neighbors out of industry and people," Kelley reports. "It comes from the feeling created by Texas Eastern people who make Batesville their home and are proud of being both an employee of their company and a member of our community."

"Texas Eastern contributes the second factor, economic return, in the form of local payrolls and purchases, which bring income to Batesville," Kelley says. "In addition, taxes paid locally by the transmission company benefit the entire county."

Batesville, a southern Indiana community celebrating its 100th anniversary this summer, is typical of many smaller towns and cities near the Texas Eastern pipelines.

DAILY PURCHASES OF GROCERIES and other supplies by Texas Eastern people help Batesville, Editor Kelley finds. Here Donald Dickey and wife Catherine check their purchases with friendly Jean Hoene at Kroger's grocery.

TEXAS EASTERN COMPANY CARS and trucks are serviced and fueled at local gas stations from Texas to New York. In Batesville, Editor Kelley finds Donald Gramman (right) checking the oil for Texas Eastern Ott Dorris.

EMPLOYEE SAVINGS are handled by local banks. Here Texas Eastern Lloyd Steinfort, with his wife and son, deposits funds with teller Kathryn Giltz of Batesville's First National Bank.

EDITOR ROBERT KELLEY (right) checks with station manager Ralph Terrell on Texas Eastern payment of local property and school taxes, and on the number of company people who take part in Batesville civic and social affairs.
